Re: Notice of Intention to Arbitrate

Robert Gordon v. Wilson Elser Moskowitz Edelman & Dicker LLP, Rory L. Lubin, Stuart Miller and John and Jane Doe (said names being fictitious, the persons intended being those who aided and abetted the unlawful conduct of the named Defendant)

Dear Mr. Maduegbuna:

As you are aware, the undersigned represents the named defendants in the above-captioned matter.

We are in receipt of the summons and complaint dated June 21, 2022 and filed in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York on June 22, 2022. As you discussed with my partner, David Eisen, Mr. Gordon's employment with the firm was governed under an Of Counsel Agreement ("Agreement") dated August 2, 2016. A copy of this Agreement is attached hereto for your ease of reference. Pursuant to this Agreement, Mr. Gordon agreed to a dispute resolution process that included both mediation and, if no resolution was reached, arbitration. Specifically, Paragraph 10 of the agreement states:

"Any claim in contract, tort or otherwise (except for claims for workers' compensation, state disability insurance and unemployment insurance benefits) arising out of or relating to this employment relationship, including without limitation, claims of discrimination in violation of federal or state statutes, breach of contract or any other employment or business related claim shall be resolved in accordance with the procedures specified below, which shall be the sole and exclusive procedures for the resolution of any such claims. This Of Counsel Agreement and employment relationship shall be interpreted, determined and controlled by the laws of the State of New York. This provision shall survive termination of the Of Counsel employment relationship and shall apply to former employees and to the estate or conservator of a former employee.”

The agreement further states that in the event mediation of the dispute is unsuccessful the parties agree to arbitration. Specifically, the Agreement states:

“Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Of Counsel Agreement or the breach, termination or validity thereof, which has not been resolved by the mediation procedure as provided herein within 60 days of the initiation of such procedures, shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the then current AAA Rules for Arbitration of Employment Disputes by a sole arbitrator, mutually agreed upon by the parties. The place of arbitration shall be New York. Each party hereby waives any right to punitive, exemplary or treble damages...”

Pursuant to terms of the Agreement including, but not limited to, those cited above, we request that you discontinue the action in federal court and agree to transfer this matter to arbitration. Pursuant to CPLR 7503, unless you file an application to stay the arbitration within twenty (20) days after service of this notice, you shall be precluded from objecting that a valid agreement was not made or has not been complied with and from asserting in court the bar of a limitation of time.

Should you not agree to discontinue this action and transfer it to arbitration, we will be forced to move to compel arbitration and will seek an award of the costs associated with pursuing that motion.

Very truly yours,

WILSON, ELSER, MOSKOWITZ, EDELMAN & DICKER LLP

WILSON ELSER will not be responsible for any claims that arise from GORDON's participation in any previous legal firm or activity.

8. Compensation and Performance: As compensation for the above legal services, WILSON ELSER will pay to GORDON a sum to be determined by Wilson Elser and payable in equal semi-monthly installments for 2016 and thereafter.

Any and all legal fees or other fees for services, commissions and compensation of whatsoever nature which are earned by an Of Counsel while he is an Of Counsel employed by

WILSON ELSER (regardless of when decreed or ordered or when paid or payable to such person or his estate) shall be deemed earnings, and be the property, of WILSON ELSER unless the Executive Committee determines that the receipt of or retention of such money or property by WILSON ELSER is contrary to law or public policy or inimical to the best interests of WILSON ELSER. Such property or money shall include (but not be limited to) the following:

- (a) Fees or other compensation for legal services;
- (b) Directors' fees;
- (c) Fees, salaries or other compensation for serving as an officer, adviser, consultant, arbitrator or mediator;

- (f) Fees or commissions or payment in lieu thereof as an executor, trustee, guardian, committee, receiver, referee, special master, or in any other fiduciary or similar capacity.

To assist in effectuating the intent herein expressed, where feasible each Of Counsel shall endeavor to arrange to have the payors of the above fees, commissions and compensation remit payment in the name of and directly to WILSON ELSER.

9. The parties will attempt to agree on a current or retired partner of the firm as the mediator. Failing agreement, the mediator will be selected in accordance with the aforesaid AAA procedure.

Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Of Counsel Agreement or the breach, termination or validity thereof, which has not been resolved by the mediation procedure as provided herein within 60 days of the initiation of such procedures, shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the then current AAA Rules for Arbitration of Employment Disputes by a sole arbitrator, mutually agreed upon by the parties. CONFIDENTIALITY AGREEMENT

Our Firm's reputation for maintaining the highest standards of professional integrity is one of our most valuable assets. Being employed by a law firm places on each partner and employee a responsibility not usually associated with other organizations. It is important that you be reminded of the Firm's duty to protect the confidentiality of all information relating to the representation of our clients, and indeed in some cases, the identity of the client itself. It is not only necessary that we act with complete propriety at all times, but it is also essential (that there be no conceivable appearance of impropriety) if we wish to maintain our reputation for professional integrity and our clients' confidence in the Firm.

Both Wilson, Elser, Moskowitz, Edelman & Dicker LLP as a Firm, and its partners, associates and staff individually, are responsible for holding all information relating to the client-attorney relationship in confidence.

In no instance may any information be released which is not available to the general public. This confidentiality must be maintained and may not be used for personal gain.

Occasionally, clients ask the Firm to handle matters of an extremely sensitive nature and request that the Firm limit knowledge of the transaction to Firm management and those attorneys or staff members who must be directly involved.

Under these circumstances, attorneys and staff are specifically barred from discussing the matter with their colleagues, other than Firm management, or anyone outside of the Firm. If an attorney is working on such a matter, please respect the attorney's wishes and do not ask for further details. This policy will allow the attorney to keep the client's confidence.

Certain cases unfortunately attract attention and arouse curiosity. The Firm requests that, to the extent possible, staff members not draw attention to the fact that the Firm is working on such matters and refrain from engaging in speculation with other members of the Firm regarding the nature of the matter. To do otherwise only serves to foster rumors and create the kind of publicity that our client has asked us to avoid.

Under no circumstance should employees discuss Firm personnel or financial information which may come into their possession with anyone, be they co-worker or an outsider.

You should further understand that you may be given access to sensitive information concerning the business, clients, finances, marketing, administration and other information relating to the conduct of the Firm's business and practice of law.

We, therefore, ask you to acknowledge that the foregoing information presently is and upon termination of your relationship or employment shall remain the exclusive confidential and
